

90

91

92

Top of the Glass

90 Double Entendre

Crease Vase by Benjamin Edols and Kathy Elliott This bright, voluptuous vessel is both designed and produced by the Australian husband-and-wife team. He blows the form, which suggests conjoined lovers; she cold-carves the surface to resemble the parched earth of the outback ($3,450). —JSA

91 Sweet Clarity

Champagne Flute by Orfeo Quagliata Made at Phuze Design, an artists' co-op he established in an abandoned bottle factory in Mexico City, Quagliata's stunning stem combines Wiener Werkstätte form (his grandmother was a jewelry designer there) with Aztec sunset colors ($75 each). —JSA

92 Ringing Endorsement

Le Cirque Stemware by Vera Wang Unsurprisingly, this crystal for Wedgwood, by everyone's favorite bridal gown designer, features a ring design—a witty metaphor for that band around your finger ($30 each). —JSA

93 Best Friend to Sushi

Pure Sake Set by Takashi Sugahara Like Japan's haiku, this spare gesture of a sake set is as enlightening as it is elegant. The designer's inspiration comes from the liquid shapes of raindrops ($58/serving bowl, $22 each/glasses). —JSA >

93